Catering ^{to} our Clients

... provided in-house catering since 1998 ...

Whether the occasion is for business or pleasure, the topic of food is always on the planning agenda.

range from seated plated dinners and cocktail receptions to breakfasts, buffets, box lunches and crab feasts.

The Show Place Arena has provided in-house catering since 1998, with Jana Post serving as our Food and Beverage Manager. Working with a staff that can expand up to 35, depending on the size of the event, Jana oversees food planning for events that range from seated plated dinners and cocktail receptions to breakfasts, buffets, box lunches and crab feasts. You can read more about Jana on page 3.

In addition, The Show Place Arena covers food at the concession stands on the concourse and on the grounds at our outdoor events. For each event, we're able to customize our menu and concession stand options based on the type of event and the number of people attending.

How many people have we served? Last year we catered for 500 guests at the State of the County Address for Prince George's County Executive Jack Johnson. We prepared 1,500 box lunches for the Southern Management Corporation and an estimated 1,700 on the concourse for the Federal Small Business Expo.

And yes, we do offer alcoholic beverages.

For your next business meeting,
networking event or private party,
let us raise your expectations.
We love catering to our clients.

At Your Service

Jana Post, Manager of Food and Beverage Services

Meet Jana Post, The Show Place Arena's Manager of Food and Beverage Services. Jana joined us in 1998 after working at a nearby catering company.

Since then, she has developed and prepared menus that include barbecue and frittatas as well as elegant full-course dinners. Her work typically involves responding to last-minute requests and adjusting to changes in the number of guests or attendees. Again and again, she's shown that she's up for the challenge.

Jana works with a team of 30 employees, whom she says are "pretty terrific and very dedicated." With their help, she has been able to accommodate large numbers of people for a range of events that includes concerts, Sweet Sixteens, banquets, festivals and of course, business meetings.

When asked what types of events she prefers, Jana said, "I like the ones with lots of people and lots of activities, especially sell-out events. It's exciting when it's very busy."
